*“Serving and Empowering People
Providing Resources for Life, Leisure and Learning”*

The Board of Trustees of Delta County Public Library District (Library Board) adopts and makes public the following written policy:

ART DISPLAY POLICY

Revision Dates and General Definitions

This revision dated 02/18/2009 overrides all previous versions of Delta County Public Library District ART DISPLAY POLICY and any verbal/oral policies, actions and behavior in existence prior to this date.

No individual has the authority to override the provisions contained in the Delta County Public Library District's (hereafter referred to as the District) policies either orally or in writing, or by their actions.

The District accepts art from individual artists and groups of artists. Groups or individuals shall present proposals to the appropriate Library Manager.

The Library Manager reserves the right to determine appropriateness of items to be included in the display.

Price tags shall not be posted. A price list, description of the artwork on display and biographical information about the artist may be left at the circulation desk, or other appropriate location, and made available to the public upon request.

All work must be original by the submitting artist.

Display material will not contain offensive, obscene, profane or indecent content as defined by state and federal statutes and laws.

Display material shall not promote, encourage or entice violence.

The District does not insure exhibit items. Exhibitors will be responsible for providing coverage for items exhibited. No special security will be provided for art work.

Exhibitors must complete and sign a form listing the contents of the display and releasing the District from liability in the case of damage to or thefts of items.

The District will not take responsibility or assume liability for materials in displays and will require the exhibitor or his/her representative or exhibiting organization to sign a document identifying and releasing the District from any and all responsibility.
