Article I: Name, Authority, Location
1.1 The name of this organization shall be known as the Delta County Libraries (“the District”), also doing business as the Delta County Public Library District, established by Resolution No. 93-R-040 by the Delta County Board of County Commissioners.
1.2 The Delta County Libraries Board of Trustees (herein referred to as Board) operates under the authority of, and according to the duties and responsibilities defined in the Colorado Revised Statutes (CRS) 24-90-1 (the Colorado Library Law), CRS 24-6-4 (Open Meetings Law) and other applicable statutes.
1.3 The District is located within the boundaries of Delta County, Colorado plus the Maher area of Montrose County and encompasses libraries located in the municipalities of Cedaredge, Crawford, Delta, Hotchkiss, and Paonia. The official address is:
   Delta County Public Library District
   PO Box 858
   Delta, CO 81416

Article II: Purpose and Mission

The Board is charged with governing the affairs of the District according to applicable statutes and laws.
2.2 The Mission statement, approved June 2009, is as follows:

   Informing and empowering the community
   Providing resources for life, leisure, and learning

Article III: Membership
3.1 The Board of Trustees comprises seven (7) voting persons appointed by the Board of Delta County Commissioners from recommendations from the Delta County District Board. In accordance with the assent of the Delta County Board of Commissioners (July 28, 2008), the seven (7) members are located in the service areas of the Library District as follows:

   At large, Delta County: Two (2) members
   Cedaredge: One (1) member
   Crawford: One (1) member
   Delta: One (1) member
   Hotchkiss: One (1) member
   Paonia: One (1) member
3.2 Trustees’ terms of office are for four (4) years. The County Commissioners appoint trustees from eligible applicants on a staggered basis each year in January as a trustee’s term expires. Notice of vacancy will be posted by the Delta County Board of Commissioners. Should a trustee resign prior to the end of his/her term, the Board of County Commissioners fills the vacancy for the remainder of the term upon the recommendation of the District Board. There are no limits to recurring terms. Trustees wishing to continue another term should submit a letter of application so stating.

3.3 Appointments to the Board of Trustees must be non-political, without apparent conflict of interest and should be from those who show an active interest in the libraries and their progress. Due to inherent conflict of interest, current District staff members may not serve on the Board of Trustees, nor may former staff members who have been employed by the District within the previous two years.

3.4 The Delta County Board of Commissioners may remove a trustee from the Board, upon recommendation of the District Board of Trustees, by a majority vote, but only on a showing of good cause. Good cause includes, but is not limited to:

- failure to regularly attend board meetings without notification to the President of the Board (three consecutive missed meetings may constitute initiation of removal proceedings)
- repetitive disruptive conduct by the member resulting in the inability of the Board to conduct business
- inappropriate or unprofessional conduct in the community when engaged in Board activities
- violation of the Board’s “Statement of Ethics” (Attachment B)

3.5 Trustees serve without salary or other compensation. The Board may use District funds to reimburse trustees for unusual travel and subsistence expenses incurred carrying out library work at the Board’s request.

3.6 The Board may include ex-officio Board members deemed useful to carry out its duties. Ex-officio members are generally, but not exclusively, nominated from previous Board Trustees as recommended by the Executive Committee and voted on by the Board. The length of the ex-officio term will be set by the Board at the time of appointment. All ex-officio Board members may participate fully in Board discussions and have their comments recorded in the official minutes, but they are non-voting members and are not eligible to make or second motions. The responsibilities of each ex-officio member are to offer advice and guidance to the Board in their particular area of expertise, and to act as liaison to their particular group(s), if any. Ex-officio members shall not participate in Board executive sessions unless requested to do so by the Board.

5.6 A Trustee shall avoid situations that could bring about a conflict of interest and, should a conflict of interest arise during the course of the business of the Board, shall abstain from participation and from voting on that matter. If, in the determination of at least five (5) Board members, a Trustee has a conflict of interest that cannot be resolved, the Board shall recommend to the appointing officials that the Trustee be removed from office.

5.7 Except as otherwise directed by a majority of the Board’s members, official statements of the Board shall be limited to the president of the Board and the District Director, subject to approval by the Board.

5.8 The Board may accept such gifts of money or property for District purposes as it deems appropriate. The Board may also decline gifts or donations which do not meet the needs of the Library District.
