- Flyers, brochures, or schedules of local nonprofit organizations, groups, or agencies.
- Postings by any federal, state, or local government agency providing services to citizens.
- Postings announcing community services and volunteer opportunities.
- Nonpartisan election information.

Community bulletin boards/literature racks may not be used for the following types of information:

- Commercial notices, solicitations, business cards, job postings, and retail advertising.
- Personal notices of items for sale.
- Personal solicitations for fundraisers (i.e. walkathons, auctions, etc.).

Revised by DCPLD Board of Trustees: 6/19/2024
• Materials that support or oppose a specific religious conviction.

Posting Guidelines:
• All postings must be approved by the Library Manager or designated staff member. Notices posted without authorization will be removed. The Library Manager or designee has final say on postings.

• All postings must be appropriate for viewing by all ages and shall not discriminate against any individual or group based on gender, gender identity preference, race, ethnicity, or religion.

• Due to limited space, priority is given to the District’s information, including that of the District’s partners.

• The District reserves the right to prioritize the items that are posted based on community interest and timeliness of event. Some approved items may not be posted due to space limitations.

• Postings larger than 11 inches by 8 ½ inches may not be accepted.

• The District reserves the right to remove and dispose of any posted item.

• Posting of materials does not imply the District’s endorsement or consent; nor will the District accept responsibility for the accuracy of the statements made in such materials.
